WELCOME TO THE LIBRARY!

The library is for everyone. Including you! You can read, browse the internet, take courses, meet people and much more. You can read about all the things you can do in the library below. Most of them are free!

Do you want to read or study?

The library is a great place to read or study. And to read books, newspapers and magazines. You can work with your own laptop or with the library's computers. There is coffee and tea available in the reading café.

Would you like to use the internet?

The library offers free Wifi and internet. You can also work on the computers. To do homework or to write a letter for example. Our computers also offer many courses. For instance, you can learn Dutch for free.

Would you like to learn Dutch?

Would you like to learn to read, write or speak Dutch better? Practise with our textbooks, dictionaries, easy reading books and language games. Or with the digital language courses on our computers. You can do all of this in the library.

Do you want to practise Dutch with others?

Then head on over to the Language Café! Does your child struggle with language, and would you like help reading to your child? Ask about the ReadingExpress (VoorleesExpress in Dutch). Would you like to know more about this? Visit us or call 035-6973000.

Want to learn how to use the internet better?

The library also offers courses. To learn how to use the computer and the internet (Click & Tap). Or to arrange matters via the internet with the government or other official agencies (Digistronger). Would you like to know more about these courses? Visit us or call 035-6973000.

Do you have any questions or do you need help?

The library is here for you. For questions about finances, healthcare, forms or education. Or for help with how your smartphone or computer works. Several official agencies have consulting hours in the library. They are more than happy to help you! You can come to the consultation or make an appointment. Visit us or call 035-6973000.

Do you want to print, scan or copy something?

The library offers that service too. Please ask a staff member for more information.

Would you like to borrow books or magazines to read at home? Become a member!

Are you younger than 18 years old? For children between the ages of 0 and 17, the library membership is free!

Are you a parent? Then you can choose from different subscriptions. For certain groups of people such as refugees, we offer free memberships. Please ask a staff member for more information.
